

Queens District Attorney Richard A. Brown (right) presents New York State Senate Majority Leader Malcolm A. Smith with the distinguished William Tucker Garvin Award in celebration of Black History Month. The William Tucker Garvin Public Service Award was established in 2001 in honor of the first African-American Assistant District Attorney appointed in Queens County. (February 18, 2009)