

TRADEMARK COUNTERFEITING CONVICTION. Queens County District Attorney Richard A. Brown with hundreds of counterfeit handbags and wallets that were introduced into evidence in trademark counterfeiting trial of Jamaica merchant Hong Wu, who was convicted as charged on Friday, January 16, 2009, of second-degree trademark counterfeiting. She faces up to four years in prison when sentenced on February 27, 2009. Joining District Attorney Brown are (left to right) Assistant District Attorneys Mark Osnowitz and Latoya S. Krider, who prosecuted the case, Paralegal KellyAnn Scott, who assisted on the case, and their supervisor Assistant District Attorney Daniel M. Sullivan, Bureau Chief of the District Attorney's Kew Gardens II Bureau.