

AUTO THEFT RING DISMANTLED. Queens District Attorney Richard A. Brown (at podium) with members of the NYPD's Auto Crime Division and Queens prosecutors who successfully broke up a major auto theft ring charged with the theft of sixteen late model, high-end automobiles with a total value exceeding $400,000. Most of the vehicles were allegedly taken from dealership parking lots in Queens County and elsewhere. (05.01.2009)