

INTERSTATE GUN TRAFFICKING TAKEDOWN. Queens District Attorney Richard A. Brown and NYPD Police Commissioner Raymond W. Kelly join team of police and prosecutors at press conference announcing that four individuals have been indicted in connection with an illegal firearms ring that sold approximately 30 weapons and scores of ammunition to undercover police officers posing as black market buyers. Most of the weapons were transported from Virginia to New York. (10.07.2009)